Exploring Visual Culture and Peace

22.12.2020 - Imageandpeace.com is a platform designed for anyone interested in the role of visual culture in peace and peace processes and also a forum for active interaction, dialogue, and engagement among peace researchers and image-makers. You can find out how you can participate in that if you click here.

The highlights of the still young website are two insightful artworks: Between Violence and Peace by Shihab Chowdhury and Sarajevo Roses and Clouds of June by Sheung

Yiu and Samra Šabanović. While Between Violence and Peace engages with the aftermath of the Finnish Civil War, Sarajevo Roses and Clouds of June addresses the role of photography in recent waves of mass protests and social activism. Check out the artist portfolios here.
