

MASTER PROGRAMME PEACE AND CONFLICT STUDIES

Peace and Conflict Studies Masters Programme

PACS

Why PACS?

Interdisciplinarity. Internationality. Diversity. Critical Research...

...these are the cornerstones of the Peace and Conflict Studies (PACS) Master's programme at the Otto-von-Guericke Universe Magdeburg. Aside from its core areas in political science and sociology, the degree offers courses in various other discipling such as philosophy, history, journalism, or cultural studies. For this reason, students of many disciplines and with diver professional experience feel at home in this Master's programme.

Who are your colleagues?

> Participants (https://www.pacs.ovgu.de/Our+Students.html) from all parts of the world, including Latin America, Africa, and As contribute significantly to the diversity of the programme. Many of them are supported by scholarships of the German Acader Exchange Service (DAAD).

What does PACS Master has to offer you?

The PACS Master programme promotes the development of scientific research, soft skills, and practical work experience throu workshops and training, whereby close cooperation between students and >teachers (https://www.pacs.ovgu.de/Team.html) enables very personal exchange. Furthermore, students can gain practical experience and additional skills that will be useful for their futu career through an >obligatory internship (https://www.pacs.ovgu.de/Study+Programme/Practical+Experience.html) . This also brings togeth current and future peace and conflict researchers and reduces the gap between theory and practice in a less formal framework.

The PACS Master programme prepares students to reach excellence both in academia and the job market - in Germany a abroad. Our graduates are found in the media, in local and international think tanks, NGOs, consultancy enterprises a multinational companies.
